

AIWC Branches in Kerala actively and phenomenally engaged in the flood relief operation

All the branches on their own have been working with the local panchayat and govt. relief camps and have provided very timely support. Branches outside Kerala and members have sent in donation as well as relief material. The rehabilitation process is continuing and our members are dedicatedly on the job.